Appreciation.

The management of this store most keenly appreciates the generous patronage and confidence that has been given us by the people of Elba and vicinity. Without this confidence such a complete drug store would be impossible in a town so small as Elba, but because of this patronage we are able to keep fresh and pure everything in the drug line.

We would also thank the good people for the interest taken in our prize Piano contest. It is a rich prize and is being most strennously striven for. Never or an instant has the interest lagged and each day brings new voters to
